

Transgender Explained
For Those Who Are Not Joanne Herman

9781449029579 / $14.95 / 172 pgs

Joanne Herman's Transgender Explained For Those Who Are Not is an approachable introduction and useful reference for parents, relatives, friends, or co-workers of transgender persons, or for anyone seeking information about what it means to be transgender.

www.authorhouse.com

Deprived Solicitation
A Collection of Poems
M. Hasan Imam

9781426961540 / $15.29 / 208 pgs

Poetry has the power to heal, to enlighten humanity. It can also thrill, emancipate and encapsulate the depth of one's life. Such poetry is found in Deprived Solicitation, a collection of the work of M. Hasan Imam from 1971-2006.

www.trafford.com

Voyage in Destiny
Part Four —

The Return to True Knowledge
Francesco Alessandrini

978145677791 / £12.90 / 212 pgs

With the passage of time, the human mind lost its connection with "true knowledge" of creation and destiny. Francesco Alessandrini's Voyage in Destiny, inspired by spiritual influence of the Masters, shows us the path toward a wider vision.

www.authorhouse.co.uk

Voyage in destiny
— Part Five

Crop Circles and the Entry Into
The Third Dimension, or The Great Transformation Man is Facing
Francesco Alessandrini

9781456786731 / £21.50 / 124 pgs

In Voyage in Destiny — Part Five, Francesco Alessandrini examines the phenomenon of crop circles, offering his interpretation of their meaning, of who makes them and how. They appear to be an aid in a phase of great transformation for mankind.

www.authorhouse.co.uk

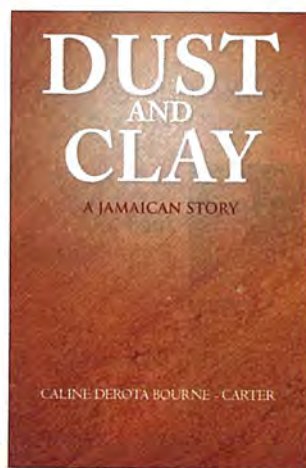

Hanna's Way
C. Carr

9781456781781 / $14.11 / 112 pgs
9781456781798 / $28.31 / 112 pgs
9781456781804 / $7.82 / 112 pgs

Hanna is a daring child, whose love for adventure sometimes lands her in trouble. Seen through her eyes, Hanna's Way tells one eventful year of her family's life. This novella gives rare insight into the lives of children in a rural community.

www.authorhouse.com

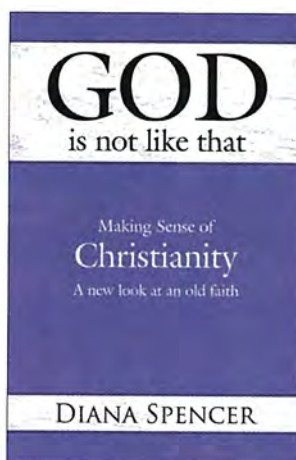

Dust and Clay
A Jamaican Story

Caline Derota Bourne - Carter
9781463438708 / $9.99 / 256 pgs
9781463438692 / $14.99 / 256 pgs

Dust and Clay unravels into an empowering and transformational odyssey of a woman who dared to pursue her dreams. Follow Corrine MacGrady as she ventures into a path fraught with trials and seeks the promise of becoming a midwife.

www.authorhouse.com

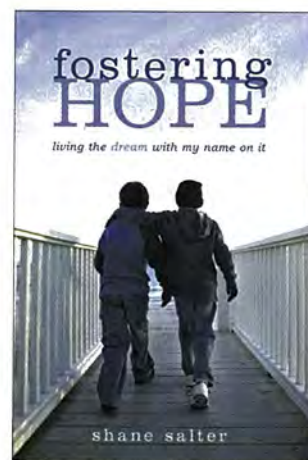

God is Not Like That

Making Sense of Christianity:
A New Look at an Old Faith
Diana Spencer

9781426911200 / $29.97 / 480 pgs
9781426914638 / $39.97 / 480 pgs

The U.S. Episcopal Bishop of South Carolina recently referred to "a world-wide struggle for the soul of Anglicanism in the 21st century," and this book tries to suggest a resolution to the many problems resulting from misunderstandings of the original faith over the centuries which have affected all denominations.

www.trafford.com

Fostering Hope

Living the Dream with My Name on It
Shane Salter

9781450255936 / $17.95 / 216 pgs
9781450255943 / $27.95 / 216 pgs

Born to a teenage mother whose heroin addiction shattered the hopes and dreams of her family, renowned author, lecturer, and national child advocate Shane Salter was thrust into the role of parent to his infant brother at the tender age of four. In Fostering Hope, he shares his story and his strategies for moving beyond resentment to forgiveness and hope.

www.iuniverse.com